SAN ANTONIO — As the Alamo commemorates the 183rd anniversary of the Battle of the Alamo, we are excited to invite you to Historians Speak: Convergence of Cultures in the Texas Revolution.

This special lecture will examine how the experiences and history of the people of Texas, Mexico and the United States converge to create a deeper understanding of the Texas Revolution. This establishes a historical context for the events and historical figures associated with the conflict, including context for; Anglo colonization, the politics of Mexico, and the Battle of the Alamo. Our historian panel for this event includes:

- Miguel Soto, Ph.D., Professor of Mexican History at Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México.
- Andrew Torget, Associate Professor of History at the University of North Texas.
- Gregg Dimmick, Ph.D., author of Sea of Mud: The Retreat of the Mexican Army after San Jacinto.

After the lecture, there will be a Q&A session with the historians.

This event is free and open to the public. The public can register here. The media is encouraged to attend.
